Craig Erickson's Sky Train BIO

Blues-rock band led by legendary guitarist/vocalist/songwriter Craig Erickson ( he has toured, recorded or jammed with Glenn Hughes, Chris Duarte, Eric Gales, Walter Trout, Buddy Miles, Black Oak Arkansas, Tony Franklin, Rob Wasserman, and various members of Motley Crue, Ratt, Poison, The Dregs, Whitesnake, Paul McCartney's band, Jeff Becks band, & Starship.

The hard-hitting power trio builds upon the style of classic bands like Gov't Mule, SRV and Double Trouble, Jimi Hendrix Experience, Jeff Healey band, ZZ Top, Cream, Mountain, Johnny Winter, Tommy Bolin, Eric Gales Band, and many more, to deliver a topnotch blues rock funk and jam experience leaving crowds smiling dancing and wanting more. 20 solo CDs + appearances include on "Hats Off to Stevie Ray" and "Fit For A. King" compilations that also included Rick Derringer, Frank Marino, Pat Travers, Steve Hunter, Leslie West, and many more.

After recording a string of popular heavy blues-rock CDs for Blues Bureau International in the '90s, including the first come back CD for legendary Deep Purple/Trapeze/Black Country Communion singer Glenn Hughes 1994 CD entitled simply "Blues", with whom Erickson co-wrote the tracks, Erickson went on to record a string of acclaimed records on the Grooveyard, Mascot/Provogue labels among others. Erickson's Concert dates in Europe and the USA, include appearances at the Salon De La Musique in Paris and other French venues, Germany, England, etc., as well as two US tours with Glenn Hughes.

Craig is currently working on new material for several upcoming releases and is booking festivals, supporting act shows and private events in support of the forthcoming releases
